If you are applying to Reaching Communities buildings

This strand is only open to applications from certain deprived areas in England. Before you complete this form, make sure the location of the building you need a grant for is eligible by using our eligibility checker. Go to the Reaching Communities pages of our website and insert the postcode of your building into the eligibility checker. If your building is eligible, enter its postcode and its Lower Super Output Area in the boxes below.

Community building postcode:

Lower Super Output Area

If you don't give us this information to show us that your building is eligible, we won't be able to process your proposal and will return it to you.

What is the outline proposal for?

The outline proposal allows us to tell you quickly if you are eligible to apply to this programme and if your project is one that our committee might consider funding. We hope that this will save you doing a lot of unnecessary work.

When we get in touch with you after we've assessed your proposal, we won't be giving you a decision on whether or not we will award you a grant.

If we think we might fund your project, we will send you an application form and tell you what you need to do before you apply.

Before you complete this form

While there is one outline proposal form, there are separate guidance notes for each strand. Make sure you use the correct guidance published in February 2011.

The guidance notes will help you to fill out this form and to understand the rest of the application process if we like your outline proposal and invite you to submit an application.

Our guide 'Getting Funding and Planning Successful Projects' (www.biglearningzone.org.uk) is a must read for all applicants. It explains the key elements of our approach to funding and contains examples that will help you complete your proposal. If you use it to help you fill in this form, your proposal is more likely to be successful.

We update our guidance and forms from time to time. If you have had this form for three months or more, check that you have the latest version at www.biglotteryfund.org.uk or call us on 0845 4 10 20 30.

How to complete this form

When you're typing your form, use 12 point font size and if you're printing it out, use black ink.

Use the checklist at the end of the form to help you gather any additional information that you need to send with your proposal and to make sure you've done everything you need to do.

If you're not sure how to answer any questions, we will be happy to help.

Section two: About your project

We will only assess your proposal if you answer all our questions. We want you to keep your answers short and you should use bullet points. We've set word limits to show you how much information we are expecting in your answers. .

Q2.1 What is the name of your project?

Q2.2 What is the aim of your project? (50 words)

The need for your project

Need is the term we use to describe a problem or issue, or situation where something needs to change to make things better for a person, a group of people or an environment.

Q2.3 What problems will your project deal with? (200 words)

Help notes

We have included some notes to help you answer the outline proposal questions but make sure you read the programme guidance too.

Q2.1 Try and keep your project name short and snappy, something like, Youth Matters. If you haven't thought of a name for your project, you can use your organisation's name.

Q2.2 Tell us what you want your project to achieve. The aim is a brief statement of the overall purpose of your project. Try to keep your answer to one sentence.

For example, to involve young people in their local community.

If you are applying for capital funding for a building project, we are interested in how the building will be used once the project is complete, not just the building itself. To see more examples and help you give us the best possible answer to this question, read the aims and outcomes section of 'Getting Funding and Planning Successful projects' at: www.biglearningzone.org.uk/aims_and_outcomes.html

Q2.3 Be as specific as you can. For example: if you were aiming to involve young people in their local community, you need to tell us why the young people you want to work with aren't already involved.

This may be because they have been repeatedly excluded from school, are living in an area of high unemployment, are pessimistic about their future and are becoming increasingly isolated from their community.

To see some more examples and help you give us the best possible answer to this question, read the need section of 'Getting Funding and Planning Successful projects' at: www.biglearningzone.org.uk/need.html

Q2.4 What evidence do you have to show that your project is needed? (350 words)

Q2.5 How have you consulted with the people and organisations who will benefit from your project and what did you find out? (350 words)

Help notes

Q2.4 Examples of the types of evidence you might use are:

- findings from an evaluation of your existing work
- research carried out by people outside your organisation or other groups working in the same geographical area or with the same types of communities
- consultation with the wider community
- statistics or other research studies
- evidence of gaps in local provision.

Include the source of your evidence and the date it was produced.

Q2.5 Examples of consultation include:

- community surveys
- focus groups
- public meetings
- discussions with other organisations of the wider community.

You need to tell us who you have consulted and when you talked to them about your project.

Consultation should be less than two years old. If you can't consult with the people that you want to help, tell us why.

We also want to know how:

- your project has been influenced by what people have told you
- you know that the people you want to help will use your project.

Project beneficiaries

Q2.6 Who will benefit from your project? (200 words)

Q2.7 Where are they based?

Local authority area For example: Manchester	Specific area within a local authority For example: Moss side

Q2.8 How have you involved, or will you involve, the people and organisations who will benefit from your project in your project planning? (200 words)

Help notes

Q2.6 Your beneficiaries could be all the people, groups, communities and organisations living in a geographical area or all those with similar interests or needs, for example, young people or people who share an ethnic background.

Q2.7 This may be where the people who will benefit from your project live, work or go to school.

If you can, tell us both the local authority area and specifically where they are based within the local authority.

If they are based in more than one local authority area, make sure you include them all. If your project covers a wider area, you can just give us the name of the region or sub-region, or England as a whole.

Q2.8 There are lots of ways of involving people. For example:

- by setting up user groups to give feedback on your plans and plan activities
- by holding consultation days or open meetings
- by having people who use your project on your management committee
- by getting people who will use the project to help design it.

If you have difficulty involving people tell us why.

Q2.9 How will they be involved in the day-to-day running of your project?
(200 words)

Project outcomes

Q2.10 What positive difference will your project make?

Write at least two and no more than four outcomes. Use no more than 20 words for each outcome

Outcome 1
Outcome 2
Outcome 3
Outcome 4

Help notes

Q2.9 As well as the examples in Q2.8, you could involve people in running your project by:

- getting them to join your management committee
- encouraging them to volunteer with your project
- getting them to take part in an evaluation of your project
- letting them run part of the project.

If you have difficulty involving people tell us why.

Q2.10 We call the key changes or differences a project will make project outcomes.

If your project will result in two key changes then all you need do is list those two outcomes. Giving two or three will not in any way reduce your application's chance of success so don't be tempted to add unnecessary outcomes just to fill the box on the form.

In each outcome, tell us who will benefit from the change.

The outcomes of your project must directly help to deliver one or more of the outcomes for this programme.

If we ask you to fill in an application form, you will need to explain in detail how your project will make these changes.

To see some examples and help you give us the best possible answer to this question, read the aims and outcomes section of 'Getting Funding and Planning Successful projects' at:
www.biglearningzone.org.uk/aims_and_outcomes.html

Q2.11 Describe the activities that will help you achieve each of your project outcomes. (200 words)

Help notes

Q2.11 Activities are the tasks, actions or services that take place in your project to achieve its outcomes.

Examples of some project activities:

- run weekly health awareness workshops
- healthy cooking groups
- one-to-one counselling
- housing advice sessions
- CV writing and job search workshops
- recruiting and training volunteers.

To help you give us the best possible answer to this question, read the activities section of 'Getting Funding and Planning Successful projects' at: www.biglearningzone.org.uk/activities.html
